

Cesar Miranda holds the position of International Development Coordinator at the Pontifical Catholic University of Peru. He is tasked with developing and implementing internationalization strategies, managing the institution's relationships with international partners, promoting its global reputation by participating in international events, and developing dissemination materials. He has overseen several European-funded projects under the Erasmus+ and Horizon Europe frameworks, and managed student, academic, and administrative staff mobility programs. Cesar holds a Master's degree in Education Leadership and Management from the Queensland University of Technology, Australia, and a Bachelor's degree in Advertising and Multimedia from the Catholic University of Saint Mary in Peru.