Series VI: How are international partnerships affected by Covid-19?

Wednesday, June 10th 8:00pm-9:30pm JST

The purpose of this session is to discuss how institutional partnerships will be altered due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The speakers will share their views on how partnerships for international education and student mobility will be affected in their regions. The session will deal with not only bilateral partnerships but also multilateral relationships and regional networks.

Speakers:
Cheryl Matherly (Vice President/Vice Provost, International Affairs, Lehigh University, Past President of AIEA)
Mirko Varano (KTH Royal Institute of Technology, Sweden)
Nopraenue S. Dhirathiti (Mahidol University)
Moderator Hiroshi Ota (Hitotsubashi University)

Language : English
Registration for Series VI : https://tinyurl.com/recsie-06
You will receive a webinar guide promptly after your registration. Please contact us if you do not receive the guide at recsie@recsie.co.jp.

Series VII: Possible remedies - student mobility in Asia and the Pacific during Covid-19 pandemic

Wednesday, June 24th 10:30am-12:00 JST

This webinar will focus on remedies and alternative international education models for future students who have experienced hardship due to the pandemic. The presenters will discuss how we can create new education models and introduce innovative programs such as virtual exchange, COIL (Collaborative Online International Learning) and hybrid programs.

Speakers
Randall Martin (British Columbia Council for International Education)
Chris Ziguras (RMIT)
Keiko Ikeda (Kansa University)

Language : English
Registration for Series VII: https://tinyurl.com/recsie-07
You will receive a webinar guide promptly after your registration. Please contact us if you do not receive the guide at recsie@recsie.co.jp.